Member Reports:

Virtual Congress was a hit! As we move into competition season, we will want assign an "alternate" to each meet in case someone becomes ill or has to quarantine. Anyone still wanting to redeem their gift certificate from last year need to return it with the appropriate forms AND a self-addressed & stamped envelope. Those that do not will have $5 deducted from their reimbursement.

Motion: To deduct $5 from gift reward reimbursement if a self addressed & stamped envelope is not included.

Motion: Jennifer Porter

2nd: Denise Coats-Lauriat

PASSED

Assignments:

With only 1 judge panels, the assignors will be spreading out the few meets available taking travel, expenses to the Meet Director and experience into consideration. The $3 per judge assigning fees have been waived for 2020.

Financials:

As of date, we will plan to go back to collecting the $3 per judge assigning fee in January of 2021.

Judges Cup 2020

Entries for the Judges Cups are coming in. We discussed adjustments that the Meet Directors & judges will be making due to COVID-19.

Motion: To award next year's NAWGJ Membership fees to anyone who volunteers 1 or more session for Judges Cup. *No gift certificates will be rewarded for 2020. Judges CAN receive CPE credit for volunteer hours. Mileage will be reimbursed at $0.25/mile.

Motion: Jennifer Porter
